Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-10, drawn to an optical pickup head and a method of making it, classified in class 720, subclass 681.
- II. Claims 11-22, drawn to a lubricant-coated optical pickup and method of making it, classified in class 360, subclass 234.1.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. In the instant case, subcombination I can be used without the particular lubricant coating and Group II can be used without the particular coil. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

2. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

3. If group I is used, it should be further restricted as follows:

- Ia: Claims 1-9, drawn to an optical pickup head, classified in class 720, subclass 682.
- Ib: Claim 10, drawn to a method of making the optical pickup head, classified in class 29, subclass 603.07.

If group II is used, it should be further restricted as follows:

- IIa: Claims 11- 18, drawn to a lubricant-coated optical pickup head, classified in class 360, subclass 234.1.
- IIb: Claim 10, drawn to a method of making the optical pickup head, classified in class 29, subclass 603.07.

4. Inventions Ib and Ia (or IIb and IIa) are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make another and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the head of Group Ia can be made without the particular semiconductor device fabrication process/or the head disclosed in Group IIa can be made without the particular dipping process.

5. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Tianjie Chen whose telephone number is 571-272-7570. The examiner can normally be reached on 8:00-4:30, Mon-Fri.
